Barbara Soloff Levy : Dinosaurs Dot-to-Dot (Dover Children's Activity Books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dinosaurs Dot-to-Dot (Dover Children's Activity Books):

7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. For Dinosaur LoversBy A. S.The age is listed as 9 - 12 but it is too easy for that age range. The numbers of dots in the puzzles range from 28 to 32. Very easy for younger children to enjoy. There are 30 dot to dot puzzles. With one puzzle per page so the puzzle is good size on one page. At the bottom of each page there is the name of the dinosaur and a brief fact about that dinosaur. It is printed on quality paper to allow for erasing mistakes. The pages are white so they could be colored once the puzzle is done.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Super FunBy UnknownGreat condition, my preschooler LOVED it! We have a number chart to 100 on the wall and he uses it to do dot-to-dots!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy CarolLike it, but SO wish they would print age recommendations on these!

Junior paleontologists will love bringing a herd of prehistoric creatures to life in this connect-the-dots expedition. Fierce predators and gentle herbivores alike populate these pages, in ready-to-be-completed pictures of a mighty Tyrannosaurus rex, a long-necked Brachiosaurus, and 28 other captivating creatures from the Age of Reptiles.

About the AuthorBarbara Soloff Levy has created over two dozen "How to Draw" guides for Dover, plus many other activity books. Since retiring from her job as an elementary school art teacher, she devotes much of her time thinking up new ideas for this popular series.
