By Elisa 20 I'm a beginner--still avoiding playing "above the break" (higher than B flat)--and, if you love Disney music, this book is absolutely fantastic! (Also, when you feel like going higher, it's all there for you, too. But..you don't have to, and can still sound great, even at a beginner level.)The great thing about clarinet for beginners is that you only need--only can--play one note at a time. So right there, unlike other popular instruments like piano or guitar, you know exactly the one thing, the one note, to concentrate on and practice reaching smoothly. This book is so motivating--and also playing along with the CD really makes it fun and meaningful to count the time (something I tend to do "by ear"--never really a good idea. These songs, in a very fun way, impose much more discipline because you -want- to, have to, learn a song well enough to keep up.And, once you can do that, you sound fantastic playing with this CD! It is a full band to back you. I'm learning "Cruella de Ville"--so jazzy, so fun, even switches keys mid way (also good practice though "F" is below the break and "G" is above it--still, you can just do the first part until you're ready--it's still the complete orchestration. And you're the only clarinet so your solo carries the melody. It's easy to feel you're really playing along with a band right in your home! And I think the arrangements are really good. (Also, if you feel like improvising--or improvise when you can't keep up the pace--the accompaniment makes it easy to remember "just play the notes in that key and you can improvise". So much fun.)Also, there are two tracks for each song--one with a melody cue and one with accompaniment only. So you can choose which works best for your level. (The CD also includes B-flat tuning notes so you're sure you're playing in tune with the music).The songs are: BelleA Whole New WorldPrice AliGod Help the OutcastsHakuna MatataBeauty and the BeastCruella de VilWhen She Loved MeKiss the GirlIf I Didn't Have YouGo the DistanceCircle of LifeFor under $12 including CD--this is a blast.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very nice giftBy CustomerGot for a little girl. She loves it very much. My husband and I were glad she liked. She told us she plays from it all the time and she even gave us a handwritten card. My son wants to practice now!By S DotMy 12 year old is on his second year of clarinet and hates to practice everyday so I got this to help encourage him. He loves it! There are some notes he didn't know so he looked in his Elements book and learned it. I will be purchasing other books to keep him interested in practicing because it works.
