About the Author Constance Victoria Briggs is a researcher and writer on metaphysical, spiritual and paranormal subjects. This phenomenon has been reported for centuries. There have been reports from families and friends who were close to a deceased loved one that received simultaneous visits from that loved one on opposite sides of town or opposite sides of the world, with both visits being completely real and completely unique. In addition, bilocation can also occur when a person is astral traveling or having an out-of-body experience.
