Frederick Luis Aldama : Mex-Cin: Mexican Filmmaking, Production, and Consumption in the Twenty-first Century before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mex-Cin: Mexican Filmmaking, Production, and Consumption in the Twenty-first Century:

Mex-Cin offers an accessibly written, multidisciplinary investigation of contemporary Mexican cinema that combines industrial, technical, and sociopolitical analysis with analyses of modes of reception through cognitive theory. Mex-Cin aims to make visible the twenty-first century Mexican film industry, its blueprints, and the cognitive and emotive faculties involved in making and consuming its corpus. A sustained, free-flowing book-length meditation, Mex-Cin enriches our understanding of the way contemporary Mexican directors use specific technical devices, structures, and characterizations in making films in ways that guide the perceptual, emotive, and cognitive faculties of their ideal audiences, while providing the historical contexts in which these films are made and consumed.
