Tim Paxton, Steve Fenton : Monster! #3 (Volume 4) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Monster! #3 (Volume 4):

I was a little nervous about buying it unseen at first not knowing how it was put together; But after getting it and looking through it I was amazed by how awesome it is. It has a good amount of pictures through out and the articles are really good. I thought it was going to be a flimsy newspaper quality paper and folded and stapled together; But it is on great paper bound together with glue and a great and sturdy cover. I was happy that there is a good amount of pictures through out because I really want to see the Monster!s and this doesn't disappoint. The one thing I really liked and thought was funny is there's an advertisement inside for the Mag and it says 100% monsters no slashers allowed. I thought that was great even though I'm a fan of Slashers as well. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. excellent! By Reviewer from Terra A great magazine for people who grew up "Monster Kids". Very reminiscent of Famous Monsters, but with a more serious overtone. A well done, digest sized magazine that covers monster films (they have to have a monster in them) that covers films I've heard of and never heard of. Great buy! 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Love Monsters than Love MONSTER! By Fred Adelman Issue #3 is jam-packed with articles of Canadian Monster films, Bigfoot monster films and reviews of monster films around the world, many you never heard of. Both Tim Paxton and Steve Fenton should be proud of rising this zine from the ashes and start printing it again. One of my top five zines of 2014. This is not amateur hour stuff, people. It is professionally typeset and bound and a joy to read from beginning to end. You won't be disappointed.

MONSTER! is the hideous brainchild of cinema magazine guru and masterful film critic, Tim Paxton. MONSTER! is a monthly digest dedicated to all things monstrous. If you love monsters, you're going to have a snarling good time reading MONSTER! In this issue we explore FRANKENSTEIN'S DAUGHTER, Hong Kong Horrors, BIGFOOT, CANUXPLOITATION, Hal Hartley's NO SUCH THING, The Indian creature features of The Ramsays, and much more!

About the Author Tim Paxton has always been fascinated with monster movies, publishing an assortment of fan and prozines since 1978 which included "Naked! Screaming! Terror!", "Video Voice", "Highball", and "Monster! International". Tim had previously published "MONSTER!" as a digest-size fanzine in the late 1980s, and felt it was high time to do so again.
