I have shown it to many friends and co workers and have enjoyed their reactions. Laughter and grins. Susan must certainly be a cat lover. I am having a hard time not wanting to order all her books.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Purr-fect for cat and movie loversBy CustomerI adore Susan Herbet, who does an amazing job painting pictures of cats and incorporating them into famous stories and works of art. In "Movie Cats," Herbert recreates scenes from some of Hollywood's most famous motion pictures. My personal favorites include Mammy and Scarlett O'Hara from "Gone with the Wind," James Bond and his "Pussies Galore" from "Goldfinger," characters from "The Wonderful Whiskers of Oz," and a portrait of "Charlie Catlin." If you're a cat lover and a movie buff, you have to have this book!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. If you love cats and movies, you'll love this bookBy Jan P.As someone who already has--and loves--all the other Susan Herbert "cat" books, I had to buy this one as well. The pictures are wonderful; and, as a movie lover, I had fun identifying all of the characters. If you like cats and movies, this is the perfect book for you. (And if you love cats and literature, art, history, and opera, I recommend all Herbert's other cat books as well.)

A gallery of cats painted as movie stars, full of charm and humor. Susan Herbert's innovative and witty feline renderings of cats in human situations, from Shakespearean drama to masterpieces of Western art, have won her a large and admiring public. Now she draws on her lifelong fascination with the movies to give us a series of scenes from classic films all with cats playing the leading roles. Painting in her familiar and highly popular style, she presents an irresistible array of well-known characters, from the silent films of the 1920s through big-budget musicals and the lure of the Wild West to contemporary hit films. Here are flirting, dancing, detecting, and menacing cats: a beguiling flower seller in Covent Garden, a seductive older woman and a young graduate, a hard-boiled private eye with a falcon. 57 illustrations, 27 in color.

About the Author Susan Herbert studied at the Ruskin School of Art. Having worked and painted for the English National Opera and the Theatre Royal, she now specializes in limited-edition prints of theatrical animals and exhibits frequently. She lives in England.
