Trivia Challenge With Ken Jennings.By EugeneI love playing trivia games because I get to learn new facts, even if a few of the questions are out of date. I own the board game version of it, but the book is perfect for on the go fun, especially when it comes to traveling to anywhere in the world. It is fun to play with and definitely worth the money.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I love Ken, and now I love Ken's game...By CTierneyWhen I was a kid, I was hooked on Jeopardy. (Yep, sorta had a crush on Alec Trebek.) Alas, when real life (and real boys) got in the way, I quit watching... but then came Ken, and I could not HELP but get hooked again! Who says that smarty-pants geeks aren't sexy? Trust me, they are!When his run on the show ended, I was bereft! Thank goodness CAN YOU BEAT KEN? came out! When I read about it, I went panting and heaving to my local bookstore to get a copy. I'm happy to report that my wildest fantasies have come true--at least in print: Ken (well, anyway, his book) kept me up all night as I moved from category to category, trying to answer as many questions as I could. It's a mix of every kind of trivia, and because there are true/false, multiple choice and fill-in-the-blank questions, it's never boring (duh!). Best of all: the kind of arcana Ken has collected here just takes my breath away! (My own area of expertise, movies and pop culture, is well-represented and even I was challenged.) Bottom line: it is truly a factoid feast! If you're a trivia trollop like me, you'll eat this book up. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Road trip with Ken By A Customer This book is a treasure trove of challenging questions. We took it on a road trip last month. The pages are now dog-eared like one might expect to see with a best-selling novel. The play value and repeat play value are high. All I want for Christmas is the boxed version of this book.

Sure, Ken holds all the records but what about in your store? Can he go toe-to-toe with your customers in their trivia categories where they're the experts? Readers rack up money while trying to beat Ken and claim the crown of undisputed champ!

From the Manufacturer Match Wits with Ken Jennings, Jeopardy's All-Time Champ. Sure, Ken holds all the records - but what about you? Can he go toe-to-toe with you in the trivia categories where you're the expert? Rack up "money" while trying to beat Ken and claim the crown of undisputed champ!
