By chattykatty He seems to be a bit rambling in this. Usually, his voice keeps me memorized and hanging on to his every word. This makes me want to hit fast forward to get to the point of the stories. I love him though, so I will give him a break on this one :-)

I think people have an absolute ear for what is true, Garrison Keillor told an interviewer. It is this rare and marvelous sense of truth of laughter, joy, and compassion and situations that makes Keillor such a brilliant and beloved storyteller. The collection includes: Your Book Saved My Life, Mister, End of the Trail, Meeting Famous People, Family Honeymoon Al Denny, Basketball, After A Fall, The Babe, We Are Still Married, Drowning, Attitude, Letter From Ruth Luger to Joanne Leinenkranz, Nu Er Der Youl Igen, The Chuck Show of Television.

"...For all his gravity and his devotion to accurate expression, Keillor writes hilarious stories." -- Esquire "When we hear Garrison Keillor... we realize how much the page does not convey, how crucial that miraculous voice is..." -- Chicago Tribune Grammy Award Nominee for Best Spoken Word of 1992. -- NARAS In Stories Keillor reads his own short stories without an audience. Ranging from baseball to the perils of fame, the stories are humorous, serious and contemplative. As always, Keillor doesn't develop individual character voices, but rather illustrates their place within the community by his tone and inflection [brought to you by HighBridge Audio]. -- Audiofile, April 1994 About the Author GARRISON KEILLOR is America's favorite storyteller.
