Dr. Phil Hammond, Tony Gardner : Struck Off and Die (Canned Laughter) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Struck Off and Die (Canned Laughter):

The first two episodes of a BBC Radio 4 comedy series which grew out of an award-winning Edinburgh Fringe show. Written by and starring two doctors, the series aims to demystify the workings of the medical profession, to expose the plight of the NHS, and to debunk the myth that "doctor knows best".
