Brought back fond memories. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Karen I love his humor, Perfect for a road trip.

Funny and touching, these monologues from original live broadcasts of A Prairie Home Companion focus on the summer season. Includes: "The Living Flag," "The Tollefson Boy Goes to College," and "Tomato Butt."

From the Back Cover "These stories were made possible by the people who sat and listened to them, and I am very grateful for their patience. From the stage, they appear so calm and handsome and hopeful, I wish I could sit with them and wait for whatever it is they're waiting for. They remind me of the people (including me) who used to sit around and listen to Uncle Lew Powell reel off a few. This batch was done in memory of that dear man and of other greats I've known whom God gave a powerful affection for humankind, and the gift of gab." -- Garrison Keillor, 1983 About the Author As the host of A Prairie Home Companion for over forty years, Garrison Keillor has captivated millions of listeners with his News from Lake Wobegon monologues. He has been honored with Grammy, ACE, and George

Foster Peabody awards, the National Humanities Medal, and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.
